TBR is Looking for Your Help to Bring Yet Another Important New Book to the Finish Line . . .

Europe Awake! How to Stop the Assisted Suicide of the Western World

Dear TBR supporter:

About a year ago, we came to you for assistance in bringing a book by Gerard Menuhin—the son of the renowned violinist Yehudi Menuhin—to print. Your donations and pre-orders helped make Tell the Truth & Shame the Devil a reality. To date, TBR and its wholesaling network have distributed nearly 2,000 copies of this impressive tome.

And now we come to you with a similar offer for a book by famed Swiss Revisionist scholar Juergen Graf. Already, Australian Revisionist Fredrick Töben, a valued member of TBR's board of contributing editors, has taken the original Swiss manuscript and translated it into English for us.

And, as you read this, TBR editor John Tiffany is busy polishing up the book and getting it ready to hand off to me to turn into yet another important book for TBR's impressive library of Revisionist titles.

Here is what John tells me about the book Europe Awake!:

A Personal Note from the Book Editor . . .

Europe—and Western civilization—are in desperate peril. The question of the day—and very likely the question of the millennium—is whether Europe will survive—and with it its North American cousin—and, if so, how? Seeking to answer those questions is a very important new book, Europe Awake! How to Stop the Assisted Suicide of the Western World. Those who seek the truth will find the truth in the pages of this book, and those looking for a practical plan of action will find that as well.

For too long, observes the author, Europeans have fought among themselves. The European Union and NATO are failed efforts to correct that situation. Europe faces an existential threat with tsunamis of unassimilable Africans, Middle Easterners and Asians swarming in. Russians, Britons, Frenchmen, Germans and Poles, Serbs and Croats, Romanians, Finns and Greeks, Spaniards and Hungarians are all in the same rickety boat. The time has come for Europe to speak with one nationalist voice on military and foreign policy matters, while it is equally necessary for each nation and ethnic group to preserve its distinctive language and culture, and for historical injustices to be discussed openly.

A Eurasian Federation is proposed, which, like Old America, will not interfere in other parts of the world except to provide humanitarian aid and ensure the safety of such places as Armenia and Georgia against any immigration threat.

Traitor politicians who see no problem in allowing Europe and other White nations to be transformed into mixed-race caliphates will be voted out of office.

Many of the solutions apply equally to the United States. Thus, "Close the borders! Stop the flood!" is key for Europe, America and all other White areas of the world. Graf lays out a 10-step program to stop the suicide of the West.

This is a book that needs and deserves to be in the hands of every concerned person who cares about the future of the Western world.

—JOHN TIFFANY

Sounds like quite a book, and it was written without animosity or vitriol—just a straightforward but eloquent description of the problem and the commonsense solutions we must enact immediately.

For more, I've included this personal message from Dr. Fredrick Töben, the translator . . .

A Personal Note from the Translator . . .

Although I never made it to becoming a farmer, it was my twin brother who managed to continue our 300-year German farming tradition after our parents emigrated from Germany to Australia in 1954. Farming in Australia—that was the attraction for my parents in coming to Australia, and it saddened my father that, before he died in 2003, he saw how Australia's farming industry began to be broken up and subjected to "invisible but free market forces," where the once flourishing pastoral wool industry was systematically dismantled and sold to non-Australian overseas investors.

With interest I also observed how, especially since the 1970s, the nationalistic ethos of Australia began to be watered down, and how the Aborigines were thrust into the foreground within a new emerging national narrative. European Australians who resisted this were accused of being "racist." And yet peoples of other cultures in Asia, the Middle East and Africa were never accused of being "racist." The Israelis are a prime example of how to retain a monocultural society via brute force. Interesting, though, the racist tag is never attached to them. People are simply too afraid of being called "anti-Semitic."

At any rate, the first "immigrants" to Australia began to arrive between 40,000 and 60,000 years ago in three waves: Mungo Man, the current Aborigines, and the Pygmies, the hunter-gatherer peoples from Asia—who have now been entirely airbrushed out of the historical narrative. Today, of course, Australia is a White nation, but that is changing quickly here, as it is in Europe and North America, as well.

Today we are witness to a massive onslaught of non-Europeans into the heartland of Europe, especially of young men of military age who are allegedly fleeing from wartorn North Africa and from the Middle East. Kevin MacDonald calls the spirit in which Europeans are opening their borders to such an invasion as "pathological altruism"—meaning that Europe as a cultural entity is committing suicide by permitting this influx of mainly unassimilable individuals.

In Germany, this flow of foreigners has reached a crucial point where its social strain is felt within even the tiniest local communities. Residents in far-flung hamlets are forced to absorb these foreigners. All too often, local Germans are forced out of their own homes because they are the only residents there, and so the bureaucratic machinery decides to give the abode to refugee families.

With the "Out of Africa" concept of human evolution prevailing, Europeans are not really regarded as natives of the continent—though they are the true aboriginal peoples of Europe—and so are denied a claim to their ancestral lands, at least in the eyes of the multiculturalists who call the shots. The European continent is regarded in the same light as the Americas and Canada, Australia and South Africa—countries/continents of immigration. Tell that to those Germans, for example, who fled during World War II from Prussia where their ancestors had lived for over 700 years!

Count Richard Nikolaus von Coudenhove-Kalergi (1894-1972), the father of the European Union. Kalergi wrote: "The Eurasian-Negroid race of the future, similar in appearance to the ancient Egyptians, will replace the diversity of peoples with the diversity of individuals."

One of the aims of the European Union has been to fulfill the Coudenhove-Kalergi Plan, which means that the people living on this continent are targeted for extermination through immigration and race mixing. The Jewish role in destroying the European gene pool is clearly expressed by Barbara Lerner Spectre, who claims that Jews will have a leading role to play in this newly formatted multicultural Eurasian society.

And this brings us to the book at hand: Europe Awake! How to Stop the Assisted Suicide of the Western World. Juergen Graf's book masterfully details how this attack on the Europeans is progressing at a rapid pace, but he also details how this planned European genocide can be stopped, effectively and practically.

And this is where my farming instincts come into play, and that it is imperative to re-awaken the up-and-coming generation to what is happening to them in Europe and the rest of the White world. Unless there is a cultural awakening that mirrors the awakening of nationalistic fervor of a hundred years ago, then Europe will indeed fall for the One World Cashless Order and experience another Dark Ages where civilizing influences are deliberately stifled.

I hope you will buy this book and support the publisher with your donations. Though Gerard Menuhin's Tell the Truth & Shame the Devil was important, in the grand scheme of things, Juergen's book is even more so. Rather than just recounting the past and dabbling in the present, Europe Awake! explains what is most assuredly coming in the future if we do not do something now.

—DR. FREDRICK TÖBEN

That's quite an endorsement from an awfully intelligent and thoughtful scholar. So, what could be more important to all of us than the future of the White race and the dire threat it is facing now?

Nothing I can think of.

As Dr. Töben points out, the massive immigration of Muslims to Europe—spurred on by the wrecking of multiple Islamic nations by Zionist and CIA wars of aggression—is just another move in a long chess match in which our people have been all-too-willing pawns. Juergen's book makes that clear—and how we got where we are is as important to comprehend as where we have to go now before it is too late.

How You Can Help Get This Book Into Print!

Please donate what you can to this important book project Europe Awake! We expect to have the book in print and available for shipping in 90 to 120 days.

OUR GOAL: These books are expensive. We estimate we need to raise $31,000 for this project. And you can make it happen either by making a straight donation to TBR or pre-ordering a copy of the book.

By my estimates the book will be just about 1,250 pages and will sell for $35.

For those who donate $35 today, we will reserve a copy of the book for you and send it as soon as it is printed. Ordering now will save you the $5 S&H charge in the U.S. (Outside the U.S. we will have to ask for $55 for the book to cover shipping.)

If you'd like to make a larger donation, that would be much appreciated. You can count on the fact that your entire donation will go to producing and then marketing this book to an even wider audience who will benefit greatly from it.

Can We Actually Make a Difference?

Can we save Europe from committing suicide? Will the book wake up our European brothers and sisters?

Will it act as a wake-up call to our kin across the globe? Might it encourage them to act decisively through all available peaceful channels to chase out the traitors in charge who obviously care not that the Europe of today could disappear in a few short decades?

I am not exaggerating. That is how serious this situation is. And this book can help. I know it.

Please use the donation form below and send your check, money order or credit card information to us in the postage-paid envelope bound into this issue of THE BARNES REVIEW.

In closing, I would like to thank all of you who donate to make these projects possible. Rest assured your money could not go to a more important cause. Yours for our future,

Paul Angel
